"CRUISE CONTROL," Cristinerose, 529 West 20th Street, (212) 206-0297 (through Feb. 20). A good idea but an uneven, nine-artist show about car culture. Sylvie Fleury's big, shaggy green ball has a video with driving feet imbedded in it; Nancy Dwyer has made a tire swing with treads reading "over and over"; Justen Ladda offers photographic rearview mirror views and Steve Mumford's painting collides Thomas Cole and a Yugo (Johnson).
